"PARENTS...THE MOST IMPORTANT TEACHERS"
Designed for Parents of K-12 Students

Register today for the Title I Regional Parent Conference to be held at the Red Lion Hotel in Pasco on Friday, February 22, 2019.

- ✓ Gain ideas on how to support your children to be successful in school.
- ✓ Learn more about the barriers to academic success.
- ✓ Learn about how to increase positive communication with your teenager.
- ✓ Learn about local opportunities after high school (technical training, community college, university)
- ✓ Learn how to deal with family concerns on drugs, internet safety, violence prevention, and bullying.
- ✓ Learn who in your school and community can provide you help when you most need it.
- ✓ Learn what parents can do now to prepare for immigration reform.

The conference is free to parent(s). This conference is sponsored by Educational Service District 123 and local participating school districts. The registration fee ($75) is paid by your local school district.

There will be sessions available in Spanish or English. Interpretation may be available in some selected sessions. The keynote speech will be in English with Spanish interpretation via earphones.

Children are not permitted at the conference.
